Thompson

the residence that night. Thompson became agitated when he was asked not to come back. While finishing the report the victim received a restricted phone call on her cell phone. The caller hung up when she answered. Mr. Thompson had left the residence at that time.

On the way to answer a call Sgt. Newman observed Mr. Thompson on Mulberry St. Sgt. Newman turned around and attempted to stop Thompson at Mulberry and Hwy 72. Thompson refused to stop and sped up to 60mph in a 45mph zone on Hwy 72. Officer Bill Evans deployed spike strips and was able to flatten 3 tires on the vehicle. At that time Thompson sped up to 80mph and continued onto the interstate stopping once and speeding off. Thompson was finally stopped on the shoulder of I-75 and was taken into custody.

Mr. Thompson had a cell phone in his possession and showed he had called the victim 3 times around 12am on her phone. The victim stated Thompson had threatened to come back to her house and this time he was bringing his father with a gun.

Cecil Lavelle Thompson Jr., 25, of Cobblestone Creek Road, Cleveland, was charged with telephone harassment, felony evading and reckless driving. Sgt. RS Newman LPD made the arrest.

Fall Creek Falls Summer Concert Series in Full Swing

PIKEVILLE, Tenn. — Fall Creek Falls State Park's Summer Concert Series is in full swing, offering live music every weekend through September 6. Featuring an array of artists, including country, bluegrass and folk, all concerts begin at 7:30 p.m. (Central) and will run approximately two hours. Suggested admission "donation" is $3 and there is no admission fee for children six and under.

"The Fall Creek Falls Summer Concert series is a great opportunity for families to celebrate summer and just another example of what Tennessee State Parks has to offer," said Park Manager Jim Hall. "In addition to the summer concerts, Fall Creek Falls offers many unique recreation opportunities and high-quality accommodations — all at a great value."

Summer Concert Schedule:

- * Saturday, June 13: Just Lookin' Around
- * Saturday, June 20: Cumberland
- * Saturday, June 27: Foxfire
- * Saturday, July 4: Hickory Wind
- * Saturday, July 11: Cumberland
- * Saturday, July 18: Lantana Drifters
- * Saturday, July 25: Avery Trace
- * Saturday, August 1: Avery Trace
- * Saturday, August 8: Browngrass
- * Saturday, August 15: Hickory Wind
- * Saturday, August 22: Lantana Drifters
- * Saturday, August 29: Cumberland
- * Saturday, September 5: Foxfire
- * Sunday, September 6: John Latham & Company

Concerts will be held at the amphitheater in the Village Green area near the swimming pool. The poolside snack bar will be open until 9 p.m. during performances, serving pizza, hot dogs, 20 different flavors of hand-dipped ice cream and a variety of other snacks and soft drinks. In the event of inclement weather, concerts will be moved to the Recreation Hall.

Fall Creek Falls State Park is a 20,000-acre paradise in the eastern Cumberland Plateau. Located just 40 miles south of Cookeville and 65 miles north of Chattanooga, the park offers incredible scenic beauty and recreational opportunities. Beautiful waterfalls, tremendous canyons and dense forests are protected within the park's boundaries. Visitors will find a 250-site campground, a hotel and conference center and 30 cabins among the park's many amenities.

For more information about the summer concert series, please call the Betty Dunn Nature Center at (423) 881-5708. Call the Tennessee State Parks reservation line toll free at 1-800-250-8610 to make a reservation at the park's inn or visit the park's Web site at www.tnstateparks.com/Fall-CreekFalls.

Brown

Deputy Bowen, Lt. Vittatoe and Sgt. Up-ton went to the Spring Street residence and found the child unattended. A search of Ms. Brown produced a plastic pen body with white residue believed to be powder cocaine.

Courtney Darlene Brown, 23, of Spring Street, Philadelphia, was charged with child abuse/neglect, drug paraphernalia and failure to appear in Monroe County. Deputy B. Dixon, LCSO made the arrest.

Off the tracks and on to jail

Steven Allen Durham, 54, of James

Drive, Lenoir City, was charged with driving under the influence.

According to the report, Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSO was on Martel Road when he clocked a vehicle at 53mph in a 35mph zone. The deputy then turned around and the vehicle accelerated to a higher speed.

When the deputy caught up to the vehicle he activated his emergency equipment and the vehicle turned onto Lakeview Road and stopped on the railroad tracks.

When the deputy approached the vehicle the driver stated "is the train coming" and the deputy told him to pull forward so he could move from the tracks.

The driver was later identified as Steven Durham. The deputy could smell an odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person and when asked Mr. Durham stated he had been drinking.

After exiting the vehicle Durham performed poorly on sobriety tasks and was unsteady on his feet.

The officer found a six pack of beer in the floorboard with 4 opened and two unopened.

Obituaries

Richard John (Dick) Meinert went home to be with our Lord after a long, courageous battle with Multiple Myeloma cancer on Monday, June 8, 2009. Dick was born to the late Russell Lewis Meinert (1906-1989) and Della Marie Meinert (1908-1988) in Toledo, Ohio. He has two surviving brothers, William Meinert, Sr. and James Meinert, Sr. Dick is survived by his wife of 47 years, Beverly (McLean) Meinert; his two daughters and their spouses, Becky Clayton and husband, Gaylon, Donna Dodson and husband, Brian; and his four grandchildren, Spencer Hill (PFC U. S.

Army National Guard), Stacie Hill, Dallas and Bailey Dodson. He is of the Lutheran Faith and has held God close to his heart all of his life. Dick's greatest joy in life was spending time with his wife, children, grandchildren, and friends sharing in love and laughter. During his lifetime, he enjoyed, playing golf, roller skating, boating, water skiing, swimming, farming, fishing, hunting, woodworking, building hot rods, building and/or remodeling every home he has lived in. He touched the lives of everyone he met with his kind, gentle and loving nature and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. The family will receive friends from 1 to 2 p.m. Saturday, June 20th with a Memorial Service to follow at 2 p.m. at Tellico Village Community Church with Rev. Tim Meadows officiating. A reception will follow the service in the Christian Life Center. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Palliative Care Program at Methodist
