Fagg

Branch Road, Loudon, was charged with DUI 2nd offense.

According to the report, Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSO responded to a wreck on Davis Ferry Road on Friday and arrived to find Fagg had run off the roadway and hit a power pole and a fence in his 2001 Chevy Cavalier.

According to the officer's report, Mr. Fagg stated he was returning from the methadone clinic in Chattanooga and had taken 70 mg of Methadone.

Fagg's pupils reportedly were very pin pointed, his speech was slurred and he was very unsteady on his feet. He was given field sobriety tasks and performed very poorly.

Fagg couldn't follow instructions or complete the tasks and was allegedly very intoxicated. He did submit to a blood alcohol test.

Upon checking Fagg's driving history, Deputy Hamilton discovered Mr. Fagg has a prior DUI from June 4, 2001.

Speeding while DUI

Kassandra Lynn Collins, 18, Admiral Drive, Hariman, was charged with DUI 1st offense.

The report states early Friday morning at approximately 2:24 a.m., Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a green Ford Mustang traveling 65 m.p.h in a 45 m.p.h. zone going west on Highway 72 at Pear Tree Lane.

After stopping the vehicle on Highway 72 near Steekee Street the officer advised the driver, Kassandra Collins, why he stopped her and asked to see her license, registration and proof of insurance.

Miss Collins reportedly stated she had been to Sundown In The City in Knoxville and her friends had her ID.

Collins allegedly had a strong odor of an intoxicant about her person, but stated she had not been drinking. She performed poorly on the field sobriety tasks she was given.

The officer reported there was a Sonic cup in a cup holder between the seats and Collins said it had Rum in it that she had been drinking.

According to Officer Houser, he also discovered a bottle of Bacardi Limon, Kentucky Deluxe and Burnett's Vodka in the vehicle.

Miss Collins was read the implied consent and agreed. Collins's blood alcohol content was .09%.

Collins was given a warning for speeding.

DUI of pain meds

Thomas Montie Lane, 48, Main Street, Loudon was charged with DUI.

According to reports, on Sunday officers were dispatched to a motor vehicle accident on West Broadway. Thomas Lane was the driver of one of the vehicles involved.

A witness who had followed Mr. Lane from Loudon reportedly stated he was driving recklessly.

Mr. Lane reportedly had severe muscle tremors, bloodshot eyes and constricted pupils. The officer administered a Rhomberg test and the finger count test, and Lane did poorly on both.

Mr. Lane reportedly stated he was taking Oxycontin for back and neck pain. He was transported to Fort Loudoun Hospital where he gave a blood sample, and then to jail.

Patrolman B. Gentry, LCPD made the arrest at 8:51 p.m.

No license

A check through NCIC confirmed Johnson's status as unlicensed in the state of Tennessee.

Jesus Hernandez-Torres, 26, East 1st Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with driving without license and no insurance.

According to reports, Saturday at approximately 12:03 p.m., Jesus Hernandez-Torres was involved in a motor vehicle accident on Kelsey Lane in front of the Zaxby's and Wal-Mart area.

Hernandez-Torres did not have drivers license or any insurance. Patrolwoman Jamie Whitt, LCPD made the arrest.

Baldemar Guzman Gallardo, 19, Sitzler Road, Philadelphia was charged with driving without a license, and was cited in for financial responsibility and registration violation.

According to reports, Thursday Deputy Deland, LCSO was on patrol in the area of Broadway in Lenoir City when he saw a black Chevy S-10 truck with a broken tail light on the driver's side rear panel.

The officer made a traffic stop and identified the driver as Baldemar Gallardo.

When asked for a drivers license and proof of insurance, Gallardo stated he did not have either.

Mr. Gallardo reportedly advised he just bought the truck from a friend and had not registered it yet.
