Son charged after being shot while kicking door in

Sheriff Tim Guider announced the arrest of Todd Aaron Edwards of 600 Misty Ridge Road following the investigation on July 9th where Mr. Edwards attempted to forcibly gain entry into his father's residence and was shot once in the chest.

Sheriff Guider advised that upon further investigation into the incident and consulting with District At-

Sartin & Arnwine to get dunked

Detectives Jonathan Sartin and Kay Arnwine of our own LCPD have generously volunteered to participate in the Walk By Faith Christian Church one day vacation bible school by climbing into a dunking booth. Pastor Steve Kirby is also going to climb the proverbial ladder to await his fate as people throw a ball at the target to dunk them. Crowds are expected as the 1pm dunking booth begins and Kay, Jonathan and Steve have all revealed they know noone will be able to dunk them because of the fear factor.

Sex offender busted again

A convicted sex offender made a return trip to jail when he reportedly refused to move from his residence, which is located close to an area children frequent.

Roy Harvey O'Neal, 50, North C Street, Lenoir City, was charged with violation sex offender registry.

The report states, on or about July 20, 2009, Roy Harvey O'Neal was found to be living on North C Street in Lenoir City. Mr. O'Neal had been told he could not live at that location because of being within 1000 feet of the Lee Russell Recreational Complex.

Police beat

Michael Vance Cavitt, 35, Foothills Road, Lenoir City, was charged early Sunday morning, with DUI - 1st offense and violation of implied consent.

According to records, at approximately 1:50am, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD, saw a silver Subaru, traveling east on Highway 72 at Corporate Park Drive, reportedly going 63mph in a 45mph zone. The vehicle was stopped on the entrance ramp to Interstate 75 Northbound and the driver was identified as Michael V. Cavitt. Officer Houser advised Mr. Cavitt the reason for the stop and asked to see his license. The man reportedly had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person and stated they were heading home from a wedding. Mr. Cavitt allegedly stated he drank a couple of beers during the day. He reportedly performed poorly on the field sobriety tasks he was given and was read the implied consent which he refused. Mr. Cavitt allegedly stated he probably drank a six pack from 6:00pm until the time they left the wedding. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made the arrest, along with Officer Jon Yates, LPD.

Angela Dawn Maples, 34, Houston Street, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on revoked license - 1st offense.

According to records, Sunday, at approximately 9:24pm, Patrolman James R. Bowman, LCPD stopped a maroon Ford Escort, on McGhee Boulevard at Ingles, for the driver, Angela D. Maples was not wearing her seatbelt.

Upon running the driver's information through NCIC, it showed Ms. Maples drivers license is revoked.

Gun

led them to the VFW where the men were trying to sell the gun.

Charles Richard Massey, 42, West Lee Highway, Loudon was charged with illegal possession of weapon (firearm).

Edward Delano Akins, 54, West Lee Highway, Loudon, was also charged with illegal possession of weapon (firearm).

According to reports, on Tuesday, at approximately 5:58 p.m., Loudon Police Department received an emergency call from the Loudon County 911 Center in reference to Charles Richard Massey who was at a residence where the resident was a protected person on a order of protection against Massey.

Dispatch also advised Massey left the area with Edward Delano Akins in a white sedan with black front fenders and Akins was currently at the VFW located in the city of Loudon, and he may have been taken there against his will.

Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD made contact with Massey, who was sitting in the front passenger seat of a white Buick Regal with black front fenders. A 12 Gauge shotgun was laying in plain view in the front console area of the vehicle.

According to Massey, Akins was inside the VFW trying to sell the shotgun for money and that Akins received the gun when he traded drugs for it in the past.

Upon talking to Akins, who was still inside the VFW, he told Officer Harrison Massey asked him to try to sell the gun at the VFW and he was not taken against his will, in fact, he drove them there.

Both men reportedly admitted to the officer they were convicted of prior felony charges. It was confirmed through the 911 Center.

Both men placed blame on the other for the presence of the shotgun in the vehicle and both denied ownership of the firearm.

Theft and forgery reported

According to records, on Monday, July 20th, 2009, Mrs. Patti McQueen, Vonnore Road, Loudon, came to the Justice Center and reported to Investigator Jason Smith, LCSO, she and her husband's debit card had been used without their consent or knowledge. She advised, while checking her account online, she discovered fraudulent transactions which were posted on July 14th, 2009 and July 17th, 2009. The transactions were made in Nantes France on July 13th, 2009 at various ATM locations and stores in France. The total amount of the theft was $2,344.13. Mrs. McQueen has filed affidavits of forgery for all of the transactions. The investigation is ongoing.

Police beat

Jose Roldan-Bolanos, 31, Summer Street, Loudon, was charged Sunday, with no drivers license and window tint violation.

According to reports, Sunday, at approximately 9:31am, Mr. Roldan-Bolanos was reportedly driving a 1998 Ford pickup on West Broadway and was stopped for window tint violation. He advised the officer he did not have a drivers license.

A check through NCIC showed his license was expired. Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrest.

Raymond Wayne Blankenship, 25, Boulder Street, Maryville, was taken into custody on a warrant for failure to appear. Deputy Dustin Langley, LCSO, made the arrest on Saturday at the Blount County Jail.
