Gusman

were charged.

Garcia Oscar Gusman, 24, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City was charged with criminal simulation.

According to records, Mr. Gusman was at Fifth Avenue and E Street where he was being questioned by Lt. David Flynn, LCPD about several subjects that had run into a house. The people were drinking alcohol.

Gusman reportedly became disorderly when asked for identification. He said he didn't have any identification. He was patted down for weapons and the officer noticed a wallet in his front pocket.

An alleged false permanent resident card was found, issued to look authentic, for Garcia Oscar Gusman to stay in the United States. Lt. Flynn made the arrest.

Also arrested, were Socoro Ugo Padilla, 23, East 3rd Avenue, Lenoir City and Maudilio Saucedo, 30, West 5th Avenue, Lenoir City.

Both men were charged with public intoxication.

According to these reports, Padilla and Saucedo were found in the public causing a disturbance and annoying other people in the area. They both had an odor of an alcoholic beverage about their breaths and bodies.

Both were unsteady on their feet and had slurred speech.

The men were deemed a danger to themselves and others if left in the area.

Officer Mark Maxwell, LCPD, made the arrests.

Police Beat

Sunny Eugene Keller, 52, Bateman Drive, Loudon, was charged with driving under the influence, light law violation and open container violation.

According to records, Monday at approximately 10:56 p.m., Deputy Lawson, LCSO noticed a tan Buick 4-door traveling south on Highway 321 with no lights on during night time conditions. The deputy stopped the vehicle on Highway 321 at Sherwin Williams and identified the driver as Sunny E. Keller.

Upon speaking to Mr. Keller, who was in the driver's seat, the officer stated in his report he could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the passenger compartment of the vehicle.

Mr. Keller's speech was slurred and in plain sight was an open container of "Bud Ice" beer in the passenger side floor board.

When the officer asked him to step out of the vehicle to perform standardized field sobriety tasks, he smelled an odor of an alcoholic beverage on Keller's breath and person.

Mr. Keller was unsteady on his feet and had red blood-shot watery eyes. He performed poorly on field sobriety and was placed under arrest. He was transported to Fort Loudoun ER for a BAC test and then to Loudon County Jail.

Wilfred Lee 'Will' Myers, 46, Big Hill Road, Greenback, was placed under arrest on an outstanding warrant for driving under the influence 1st offense.

Deputy Rob Lane, LCSO, made the arrest at the Blount County Jail on Saturday.

Highway 11 Monday to a report of a physical fight between two men. Upon arrival, a green Subaru left the scene at a high rate of speed.

Several people identified the green Subaru as being driven by one of the suspects from the fight.

Deputy Brewer was trying to catch up to the vehicle and lost sight of it. The officer was looking in the area when the Subaru came speeding past him, heading back toward the area of the fight call. Upon activating his emergency equipment, the driver of the green Subaru sped up and was driving on both sides of the roadway. He reportedly swerved to miss a truck coming in the other direction and wrecked his vehicle on Ford Road at Crestview Circle.

A check of Mr. Fine's drivers license through NCIC showed it to be suspended in Tennessee.

day, Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO observed a white motorcycle traveling at a high rate of speed on Highway 411 South in Greenback and clocked it on radar at 69 m.p.h. in a posted 50 m.p.h. zone.

The officer caught up with the motorcycle and activated his blue lights and siren. The motorcycle made a hard left turn into an address on Highway 411 South.

The deputy pulled in behind him and identified the driver as Eric J. Lowery. He advised Lowery of the reason for the stop and asked him for a license.

Lowery produced a Tennessee ID card. The number on the card was ran through TDOS and the status returned unlicensed for DUI 1st out of South Carolina.

Police Beat

Brian Matthew Buchanan, 26, North Burn Street, Niota was charged with public intoxication and simple possession.

According to reports, on Thursday, at around 7:31 p.m., Patrolman Jason Felts, LCPD made contact with Brian M. Buchanan in the parking lot of M and R Trucking. Buchanan was standing next to his car unsteady on his feet, with very slurred speech and was repeating everything over and over again.

The officer asked Buchanan if he had taken any type of medication, and he replied he had taken some hydrocodone earlier.

Officer Felts took Mr. Buchanan into custody for his protection and the public's.

After searching him at the scene, the officer transported Buchanan to Loudon County Jail and after searching him again at the jail, Patrolman Felts found a clear bag, containing a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana.

Patrolman Jason Felts, LCPD, made the arrest, along with Patrolman Rusty Bowman, LCPD.

Williams

According to records, Saturday, at about 5:15 p.m., Officer Anthony Chitwood, TWRA observed Mr. Williams operating a vessel on Tellico Lake near "The Bluffs" in Loudon County. There was an individual sitting on the bow gunwale while the vessel was underway.

The boat was stopped and the officer noticed several alcoholic beverages about the vessel and the operator had the odor of alcohol on his breath.

Williams was asked to put on a PFD and board the TWRA vessel where Officer Chitwood administered several field sobriety tasks in which he performed poorly on.

TWRA transported Mr. Williams to the shore for several more tasks that he also did poorly on.

Williams was placed under arrest and transported to the Mobile Command Center to use the intoximeter, where he blew an .11%.

Changes

meeting.

The TWRA made its initial proposals for 2010 at the August meeting of the TWRC which was held at Paris Landing State Park.

The following are TWRA's proposed changes by region and statewide for 2010:

Proposed Changes-Region III:

*Dale Hollow Reservoir

Increase muskellunge minimum size limit to 50 inches, 1 fish per day creel

*Fall Creek Lake, Fall Creek Falls State Park

Remove black bass minimum size limit

Establish 20 fish aggregate creel limit for redeer and bluegill

*Falling Water Lake, Burgess Falls SP

Remove all fisheries regulations- statewide apply

*Cordell Hull

Largemouth Bass- 17-23 inches Protected Length Range (PLR), 1 fish over 23 inches, 2 fish under 17 inches

*Caney Fork River Rainbow and brook trout-14-20 inches PLR with 1 fish over 20 inches

Brown Trout-22 inches Minimum Length Limit (MLL) with 1 fish over,

(changed from 18-inches MLL with two over)

Proposed Changes-Region IV:

*Cherokee Reservoir - remove paddlefish size limit. Replace wording: "Culling, the releasing of harvested fish, is prohibited" with "Paddlefish: 1 per day. Season is open from March 1-15. Fish may not be released when caught."

*Melton Hill Reservoir - Increase the muskellunge minimum length limit from 44 to 50 inches. 1 fish per day creel

Extend the striped bass PLR (32-42 inches, 1 over) to Hwy. 61 bridge at Clinton

*South Holston Reservoir- Remove the closed trout season (Dec. 1 to Feb. 28)

*Norris Reservoir - change smallmouth bass size limit from 18 inch minimum length limit to a 17 to 22 inches PLR-1 fish under and 1 fish over the PLR

Proposed changes-Statewide:

Sport trotlines, limblines, and jugs: To read - "Sport fishing trotlines, limblines, and jugs must be tagged and/or marked with the angler's name or current TWRA identification number."

Other changes being considered by the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission (TWRC):

After hearing from several members of the public, the TWRC Fisheries Committee let it be known that it will also consider the following changes:

*Increasing the agency recommended 22 inches to a 24-inch minimum length limit on brown trout on the Caney Fork River with one fish allowed over 24 inches

*Also, on the Caney Fork, the TWRC Fisheries Committee will consider changing the daily creel limit from seven to five trout per day, per person

*The committee is also considering a change offered from the public that would increase the sauger minimum size limit from 14 to 15 inches on Kentucky Lake
