Barron

According to records, on Saturday, Corporal Chad Estes, LCSO, was running stationary radar on Hines Valley Road. The officer observed a vehicle going west on Hines Valley and clocked it going 60 mph in a 45 mph zone. When Corporal Estes pulled in behind the blue Chevy to do a traffic stop for speeding, he saw a blue can thrown from the passenger side window. After the stop, he approached the vehicle and reportedly smelled a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the driver's compartment. The deputy asked the driver, Alvin Bartley Barron, if he had been drinking, he said, the beer that he threw out the window when the law got behind him. Mr. Barron reportedly had slurred speech, red watery eyes and had problems getting his license out of his wallet. When he got out of the car, he was unsteady on his feet. Barron did poorly on several field sobriety tasks and was placed under arrest. He was read the implied consent law and refused a BAC test. Mr. Barron was issued a citation for littering and violation of financial responsibility law.

a residence on Ward Avenue. When Officer Norman got out of his vehicle, the homeowner came to him and advised, an individual at his residence was severely intoxicated. The officer located the man and identified him as Mr. Jace Patrick Lennex. He reportedly, had a mixed alcohol drink in his hand, a strong odor of alcohol emitting from his person and was very unsteady on his feet. When Officer Norman advised Lennex he was under arrest, he began to cuss and yell. When the officer attempted to put him into custody, he resisted arrest and during the struggle Mr. Lennex punched Officer Norman in the groin. When the officer couldn't get control of the man he deployed his Tazer(x26) with a drive stun to the stomach. Lennex was then placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail. Mr. Lennex began to vomit and go in and out of consciousness in the jail. Loudon County EMS was called and transported Lennex to Fort Loudoun Medical Center. While Dr. Cobble was examining Mr. Lennex, he attempted to punch the doctor and barely struck him in the face.

Lennex was reportedly cussing and trying to fight. Officer Norman put the angry man in a arm bar, got him restrained again and took Lennex back to jail.

at Forest Park Boulevard in west Knoxville. The Knoxville Track Club (KTC) gifted a park bench in honor of Covenant Health.

"This honorary park bench is a small show of KTC's great appreciation to Covenant Health for its sponsorship of the marathon from its inaugural event in 2005 to today," said Jason Altman, KTC board member and marathon executive director. "Through its investment, Covenant

Health demonstrates its commitment to our community's health and wellbeing, and on behalf of KTC, the City of Knoxville, and the 20,000+ past participants, we thank you."

The Covenant Health Knoxville Marathon has grown to become the largest competitive road race in East Tennessee and is actually five different running events held over two days. In 2010, the 26.2-mile marathon, 13.1-mile half marathon, four-person marathon relay, and 5K run will be held Sunday, March 28, and the one-mile kids run on Saturday, March 27.

As in previous years, all races will have an exciting finish on the 50-yard-line inside Neyland Stadium. For many, it is the thrill of seeing themselves on the JumboTron as they cross the finish line that inspires them to run the Covenant

Health Knoxville Marathon.

But participants soon realize that the best reward is what they gain by the entire experience, said Tony Spezia, president and CEO of Covenant Health.

"We can point with pride to many people who have been motivated by the marathon to start exercising and become more fit," said Spezia. "The event raises public awareness of the importance of physical fitness and supports our organization's mission to improve the health and quality of life in our community."

For the 2010 event, the Knoxville Track Club is offering an early sign-up discount of $10 for the full and half marathons from September 1 through 30 at midnight. Registration for the children's run will open later this fall. For more information about the marathon or to register online, go to www.knoxville-marathon.com. Information is also available by calling the Knoxville Track Club at (865) 684-4294.

The Knoxville Track Club and Covenant

Health will offer training programs for runners and walkers of all levels beginning this fall. Information about the programs will be available at www.knoxvillemarathon.com.

Covenant Health is a community-owned health system providing comprehensive health services throughout East Tennessee. Headquartered in Knoxville, Covenant Health includes six acute care hospitals with a total of more than 1,500 licensed beds, as well as numerous outpatient services and clinics. The health system also includes specialty providers of behavioral, oncology, and rehabilitation services. Covenant Health has more than 1,000 affiliated physicians and 9,000 employees.

The Covenant Health Knoxville Marathon is a premier event owned and organized by the Knoxville Track Club, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the encouragement of physical well being through running, jogging, competitive road racing, racewalking, fun runs, cross country, and track and field.

two vehicles pulled over to the side of the roadway and several people standing around the vehicles. At the same time, dispatch said they received a call of a possible wreck. Two females, a small child and a male were walking away from the scene.

Deputy Patterson got everyone back to the scene and after talking to everyone and getting statements, he found the assailant Gabrel C. Ogle and his wife had been arguing on the phone and were to meet somewhere to give her some money.

As the woman was driving west on Pond Creek Road in a Nissan Maxima, she met Gabrel C. Ogle driving east on Pond Creek Road in a Toyota T100 pickup truck. Gabrel Ogle reportedly pulled over into the victim's lane of travel coming at her head on. She pulled over to the side of the road to avoid him hitting her vehicle head on. Mr. Ogle did hit the driver's side rear quarter of her vehicle with his truck, causing minor damage to both vehicles, the report noted. The woman had passengers in her vehicle that were put in danger also, including a two year old child.
