Assault

Ronnie Dean Brown, 26, Abbott Crossing, Lenoir City, was charged Friday, with assault domestic violence.

According to the report, Deputy Kevin Parks, LCSO, responded to Abbott Road on a physical domestic violence. The complainant stated, she was in a physical altercation with her son, Ronnie Brown. Mr. Brown had already left the residence headed toward Highway 321. The victim stated, she arrived home around 4:00pm, and Ronnie and another person were arguing. The woman told them to stop. The complainant stated

Ronnie asked her for money and she told him she didn't have any and walked out to the front porch. She advised, Ronnie and the other person went to their car to leave, but before he left, he reportedly walked to her van and kicked the back of the van leaving a large dent. Mr. Brown then walked onto the porch and spit in the victim's face and she hit him in the back, so he picked up two plastic porch chairs and threw them at her, hitting her in the left arm and back area. Mr. Brown and his friend then left the residence. According to the officer's report, there was a large dent in the back quarter of the van and two plastic chairs were laying on their side on the porch. Corporal Pete McGinley, LCSO, made contact with Mr. Brown at Wal-Mart in Lenoir City and determined him to be the primary aggressor. Deputy Kevin Parks, LCSO, made the arrest at Wal-Mart.

bound on 75. Deputy Nick Lawson, LCSO, made contact with the truck around Exit 72 and got it stopped. Mr. Harvey was taken into custody. He was charged with evading arrest, reckless driving and reckless endangerment, for the September 4th incident.

Patrolman James R. Bowman, LCPD made the arrest. Nathan Turner, LCPD was also on scene.

This wasn't the first time Officer Bowman has had dealings with Lucas Harvey, on July 31st, 2009, at approximately 4:36pm, Officer Bowman was dispatched to Ingles on a shoplifting call, for a white male with brown hair and a full beard, driving a brown Ford F-150 without a tailgate. The officer made contact with the truck a few minutes later and attempted to stop it, for the driver was not wearing his seat belt, while traveling north through the CVS parking lot. The driver, Lucas Shane Harvey, attempted to flee by trying to run the officer's patrol car over with his truck. According to Officer Bowman's report, he had to maneuver his patrol car around him to avoid contact. The truck took off and Officer Bowman gave chase on Highway 321 towards Blount County, when the pursuit was canceled by Lt. Gillis Morgan.

Upon making contact with Mr. Harvey on September 4th, Officer Bowman contacted the manager at Ingles, she positively identified Lucas Harvey as the shoplifter who made off with a 10lb bag of potatoes and a 12 pack of Bud Light. ($16.23) Mr. Harvey was identified through a line up. He therefore received another charge. Theft under $500.

In another incident, Lucas Shane Harvey, 30, Unitia Road, Lenoir City, was charged with theft under $500.

According to the report, on or about September 3rd, 2009 around 7:15pm, Lucas Shane Harvey was at the Food City in Lenoir City. While there he reportedly took a 12 pack of Budweiser and assorted school supplies. Lucas Harvey did this to deprive the owner true ownership. Total amount of merchandise was $30.

Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD, made the arrest on September 9th, 2009.

Police beat

Patrick C. Westmorland, 26, Highway 11, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on suspended license and violation of probation.

The report states, on Friday, at 1:00PM, Sgt. Billy Hall, LCSO, stopped a white Pontiac on Broadway, at Roane State Community College, for expired tags. The driver was identified as Patrick Westmorland. A check of Mr. Westmorland's license showed to be suspended out of the state of California for failure to pay citation.
