At least it's not in distress!

The UT flag on Pond Creek Road in Philadelphia flew at half mast Sunday following UT's defeat at the Swamp.

At Least it's not upside down in distress as the Volunteers made a better showing than anticipated.

Even though the Vols lost (23-13) Florida coach Urban Meyer was quick to make excuses by saying several of his players had suffered flu-like symptoms in the days prior to the game.

Revoked drivers Bad driving gives it away every time

Christopher Neil Parsons, 37, Mulberry Street, Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked license.

The report states, Deputy Chad Petty, LCSO was on patrol when he noticed the driver of a gray Chevy pickup, later identified as Christopher N. Parsons, not wearing a seat belt.

The officer stopped the fense and driving without a valid driver's license.

According to reports, Corporal Chad Estes, LCSO received a call from the 911 Center on Wednesday evening stating there was a possible drunk driver on Interstate 75 South passing mile marker 81. The vehicle was described as a tan Oldsmobile.

Corporal Estes spotted the vehicle and observed it almost sideswipe another vehicle it was passing.

The lawman fell in behind the Oldsmobile as it was crossing into the other lane and driving very erratically, almost striking several more vehicles and stopped it just south of mile 76. When the driver rolled down his window, the officer reported he smelled a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the driver's compartment.

Juif, who produced a Michigan drivers license, reportedly stated he had drank several beers. He had slurred speech, red watery eyes and was very unsteady on his feet. He was given several field sobriety tasks and did poorly.

Mr. Juif had a prior DUI in Kentucky and one in Tennessee in 2009. His Michigan drivers license are expired.

Juif did take a Intox EC/IRII test, The results were .25%.

sion of drug paraphernalia.

According to records, Officer Blake Norman, LPD observed a red Nissan Sentra traveling north on Highway 11. The driver was not wearing his safety belt and the brake light on the driver's side was not working.

Officer Norman conducted a traffic stop and identified the driver as Mr. Alvin Clifford Bivens II. The officer ran him through NCIC and his license came back suspended.

Upon arrival at the jail, a search was conducted by Loudon County Deputy Kimber Littleton, which uncovered a plastic straw in Bivens's wallet with a lot of white residue on it, which is commonly used for the intake of narcotics.

Elie Musset Pilet Jr., 31, Smyrna, Tennessee was charged with violation of probation Tuesday.

Deputy R. Gray, LCSO made the arrest.

Charged

sion of schedule VI (marijuana).

Michelle Lee Plemons, 37, Chillhowee Avenue, Greenback was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Deputy Jerramie Bowen, LCSO stopped a white Ford Explorer on East Coast Tellico Parkway for suspicion of DUI. The vehicle had crossed the center line and fog line several times and kept speeding up and slowing down.

The driver, Mr. Warren stated he did not have his drivers license with him and a check through NCIC revealed they were suspended for failure to satisfy citations.

Deputy Bowen reported he smelled a strong odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle, however, Mr. Warren did well on field sobriety tasks.

The passenger and owner of the vehicle, Michelle Plemons gave Deputy Bowen permission to search and he found a small cookie tin with marijuana residue inside. Mr. Warren admitted to dropping a small hand rolled marijuana cigarette in front of the officer's cruiser.

Ms. Plemons reportedly had a strong odor of alcohol coming from her person, slurred speech and red watery eyes. There was no one to drive her vehicle and if she were left in that state she would have been a danger to herself or the public.

Deputy Jerramie

Bowen made the arrests and Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO transported Ms. Plemons to the jail.

Police Beat

Wilmer Adalid Chavez, 29, West 2nd

Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with driving on suspended license (Roane County warrant).

Deputy J.C. Schultz, LCSO made the arrest.

vehicle on Steekee Road behind the Loudon High School. A check of Mr. Parson's drivers license through NCIC came back revoked for driving under the influence.

Gary Neil Norman, 36, Crock Road, Loudon was charged with driving on revoked license.

According to the report, Officer Brendan DeBoer, LPD observed a gold Chevy Blazer traveling at a high rate of speed on Highway 11 and clocked it at 44 mph in a 30 mph zone.

Mr. Norman has a revoked license in the state of Tennessee. Officer DeBoer made the arrest and Deputy D. Langley, LCSO served Gary Neal Norman two warrants out of circuit court for child support at the Loudon County Jail.

Ramiro Duenas, 42, East Tennessee Avenue, Oak Ridge was charged with driving on revoked license, window tint law and financial responsibility.

According to the report, Ramiro Duenas was operating a maroon Chevy pickup on Highway 321 at Wholesale Supply and was stopped for a window tint violation.

Duenas's drivers license status came back revoked. He did not have proof of insurance. Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrest.

John C. Lankford, 36, Honeysuckle Road, Loudon was charged with driving on revoked license.

According to reports, on Officer Blake Norman, LPD observed a red Jeep traveling east on Highway 72 with the driver's side headlight not working. He conducted a traffic stop on the Jeep and identified the driver as John C. Lankford.

A check of Lankford's license through NCIC came back revoked in the state of Tennessee for driving while intoxicated.

Police Beat

David Benjamin Baird, 22, Congress Parkway, Athens was charged Sunday morning with DUI.

According to records, Corporal Pete McGinley, LCSO responded to a call of a possible drunk driver traveling south on Interstate 75 approaching the Sugarlimb Road Exit. The vehicle, a black Ford Explorer was all over the road. The vehicle drove on the white fog line several times between the Sugarlimb Road Exit and the 72 Exit.

The driver, Mr. Baird was unsteady on his feet and had a smell of an alcoholic beverage about him. He reportedly stated to officers he'd had two beers about 3:00am.

Mr. Baird did poorly on standard field sobriety tasks. He was read the implied consent advisement and agreed to submit to a chemical test of his blood. Upon arrival at Fort Loudoun ER, however, Baird changed his mind and refused the test.
