Officer made contact with the people in the house who stated the assailant had fled. Officer left the scene and caught up to Marvin Gray Murrell walking on Ferry St. He had been in a fight and was bleeding from the face. The two victims and two witnesses gave statements (oral and written) to the following facts: Murrell entered the rooms of the victims angry about money. A fist fight broke out and all three sustained injuries. The fight was over and all had separated when Murrell returned with a butcher knife and 6 pound dumbbell weight.

Murrell aggressively and with the intent of causing bodily harm, attacked both victims. They fled from his assault while he slashed at them with the knives. He did not make physical contact with the victims but did put them in fear of being seriously injured or killed. After failing to stab the victims, the defendant threw the knives at them and fled the house. Marvin Murrell was arrested and transported to jail. Said happened in Loudon, TN.

ganization by the U.S. Department of State. Each of the men is on the FBI's Most Wanted Terrorists List. The case is being investigated by the Bureau's Washington Field Office.

"It's always been an active case of ours," said the lead FBI agent on the case. He said images of the suspects obtained by the FBI in the year 2000 were age-progressed by the FBI Laboratory. "We're hoping that with the age-progression photos next to the original photos maybe that will jar some memories or maybe someone has seen these guys walking around."

Anyone with information in the case is asked to contact the FBI or submit a tip at <https://tips.fbi.gov>. The $5 million reward is offered through the State Department's Rewards for Justice Program.

"No matter how much time has passed or the obstacles we encounter," the case agent said, "we owe it to the victims and their families to never give up on them."
