head and 2 males in the vehicle at the time of the crash. All three subject were transported to UT Hospital. After an investigation at the scene Trooper went to UT Hospital to continue the investigation. Trooper made contact with passenger Leonel

Aguirre, beside the female in the trauma bay. Trooper was then able to identify the female and another passenger female was identified as Esperanza Cavilla. During Trooper investigation found defendants possessed multiple counterfeit Social Security Cards that were made to appear as a genuine card issued by the SS Administration. However the cards did not have the appropriate security features found on authentic cards. Furthermore, the defendant possessed a counterfeit permanent resident card that was made to appear genuine but did not have the appropriate security feature. It is common for person in the country illegally to buy, sell and possess counterfeit identification cards for purpose of employment and other benefits. Trooper was contacted by dispatch and see theft ctd. pg. 5 from the U.S. Air Force, previously pleaded guilty to a one-count information charging him with possession of child pornography.

U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey said, "This case is a good example of local and federal agencies working together to protect children, our most vulnerable victims. The U.S. Attorney's office will continue to prosecute aggressively individuals who choose to possess and distribute child pornography."

"There is no greater call in law enforcement than protecting the young and innocent," said Special Agent in Charge Renae M. McDermott, FBI, Knoxville Division. "This case is an example of our partnerships with prosecutors and other law enforcement agencies doing just that. I want to thank all agencies involved for their commitment to rooting out those who seek to exploit children."

Agencies involved in this investigation included the Winchester Police Department and the FBI. Assistant U.S. Attorney James T. Brooks represented the United States.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by U.S. Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to locate, apprehend and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. DV Brandi Helton, 34, Mulberry Street Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Officers with LPD, responded to a disturbance at Mulberry Street in the City of Loudon. Upon arrival Officer noticed a 16 year old juvenile female sitting on the living room couch holding an ice pack to the top of her head. After interviewing multiple subjects & witnesses inside the residence, we learned the following information. Brandi Helton came home this evening and had been drinking. Brandi was verbally combative with several residents the entire evening, including her

16 year old daughter. Eventually a physical altercation ensued between Brandi and her daughter with Brandi pulling her daughter to the floor by her hair and striking her about the head. This officer could feel a knot/bump to the top of the daughter's head, no visible injuries were detected on the mother, no medical attention was requested or needed by either. This officer felt that Brandi Helton, who still appeared intoxicated, was the primary aggressor and was charged with Domestic Assault. Said actions did occur on 12-27-2017 in the City of Loudon.

Child abuse

Andrew Armstrong, 33, Shaw Ferry Lane Lenoir City, was charged with Child Abuse or Neglect.

Deputy JC Schultz LCSO, arrested Mr. Andrew Alden Armstrong on a warrant out of Loudon General Sessions Court (#2017-cr-1722) for child abuse. Mr. Armstrong was arrested on scene after a search of the premise and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. This did occur in Loudon County, Tn.
