U.S. Attorney's Office Welcomes 15 New Assistant U.S. Attorneys

On Friday, January 25, 2019, the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, Chief U.S. District Judge, formally administered the oath of office to 15 new Assistant U.S. Attorneys (AUSAs) for the Eastern District of Tennessee. U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey introduced the new AUSAs with a short background before moving the court to administer the oath of office to each of them. The new AUSAs will serve in the Knoxville

headquarters office as well as the Chattanooga and Greeneville branch offices and include the following:

AUSA Casey Arrowood joined the Knoxville office where he will handle general crimes and national security matters. Prior to coming to the Eastern District of Tennessee, he served as an AUSA in the Western District of North Carolina and a trial attorney in the National Security Division at the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, DC. He also previously served as a law clerk in the Eastern District of New York and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Before attending law school, he was an artillery officer in the U.S. Army, serv-
