more of heroin and/or 40 grams or more of fentanyl in the Eastern District of Tennessee and elsewhere.

only charges and that every person is presumed innocent until his or her guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

The investigation is a result of the Department of Justice's Organized Crime and Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) program, the centerpiece of the Department of Justice's drug supply reduction strategy. OCDETF was established in 1982 to conduct comprehensive, multi-level attacks on major drug trafficking and money laundering organizations. The principal mission of the OCDETF program is to identify, disrupt, and dismantle the most serious drug trafficking and money laundering organizations and those primarily responsible for the nation's drug supply.

The Good News

The Rev Dr Julius McCarter

Scripture: John 20:19-31

I think many of us scoff at "Doubting Thomas": "How can he call himself a disciple and not get it?" But Thomas isn't alone in his doubt. Let's be honest and ask ourselves how Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection have impacted our daily lives.

How does our life reflect this astonishing act of God's grace? How it changed us? If the answer is that our lives haven't changed because of this event, are we any different than Thomas? Do we doubt any less?

But Christ can pass through even our doubts, as he did the locked door of the upper room! Christ can reach us as he did Thomas: "Do not be unbelieving, but believe." If we don't insist on clinging to our doubts and questions, they can be stepping-stones to belief and a genuine part of our faith walk with Christ. This Easter, how is Christ asking you to change, to engage your faith in different ways? Prayer: Dear God, help me by your risen presence step from doubt into whole-hearted belief, to become the person of faith you have created and need me to be. Amen.
