FBI

Virginia. The Nguyens were unarmed. "This family is devastated," said Sheriff Bob Mosier. "The sheriff's office, working in partnership with the FBI, hopes this reward will help bring resolution to the senseless murder of this father and son and some closure for their family." "The public is our best weapon in solving this murder," said Charles Dayoub, acting special agent in charge of the FBI Washington Field Office's Criminal Division. "We hope that with the passage of time, and through a significant reward of $20,000, someone with information will come forward and help us bring closure to the family and justice to Duong and America Nguyen." The FBI is offering a reward of up to $20,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the violent murder of Duong and America Nguyen. Anyone who may have traveled the Rt. 28, Catlett Road corridor in Fauquier County to Prince William County on the evening of November 7, 2018, or the early morning hours of November 8, 2018, is asked to contact the FBI if you remember anything or anyone suspicious during your commute. Law enforcement agencies are asking anyone with information about this crime to call the FBI Washington Field Office at (202) 278-2000. You may also contact your local FBI field office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov. All tips can remain anonymous.

Roane County Resident Arrested for Tax Evasion

The Special Investigations Section of the Tennessee Department of Revenue conducted the investigation that led to the indictment and Wednesday's arrest of Travis Lynn Lively. Lively, age 46, was arrested at his home and transported to the Roane County Jail. Bond was set at $1,000. On June 17, 2019, the Roane County Grand Jury indicted Lively on four Class E felony counts of tax evasion.

"The Department of Revenue promotes voluntary taxpayer compliance by educating taxpayers, aggressively pursuing criminal sanctions and demanding accountability when taxpayers engage in fraudulent activity," Revenue Commissioner David Gerregano said. "This indictment underscores the Department's ongoing efforts to enforce Tennessee's tax laws." If convicted, Lively could be sentenced to a maximum of two years in the state penitentiary and fined up to $3,000 for each count of tax evasion. The Department is pursuing this criminal case in cooperation with District Attorney Russell Johnson's office. Citizens who suspect violations of Tennessee's revenue laws should call the toll-free tax fraud hot line at (800) FRAUDTX (372-8389).

The Department of Revenue is responsible for the administration of state tax laws and motor vehicle title and registration laws, as well as the collection of taxes and fees associated with those laws. The Department collects about 87 percent of total state revenue. During the 2018 fiscal year, it collected $14.5 billion in state taxes and fees and more than $2.8 billion in taxes and fees for local governments. To learn more about the Department, visit www.tn.gov/revenue.
