Gov. Bill Lee Announces Additional Appointments to Boards and Commissions

Tennessee Governor Bill Lee announced several state university boards as well as his selections to the Agriculture Task Force.

“We are proud to announce the appointment of these individuals to a series of significant roles in higher education and agriculture,” said Tennessee Governor Bill Lee. “I look forward to working with them as they share their expertise and serve our state.”

Deputy Marshall Lynn LCSO, was notified of a gray sedan on Interstate 75 Southbound, that was driving erratic. While en route, Deputy was notified that the vehicle had blown a tire and was pulled off to the side of the road. Deputy and Deputy Charlie Huskin located a vehicle matching the description on the Highway 72 off ramp, from 75 Southbound. We made contact with the driver, later identified as Suspect (Cameron Nordan), who upon initial observation appeared to have glossy bloodshot eyes and slow mumbled speech. Cameron Nordan was easily confused by simple questions and had trouble following directions. Deputy asked Cameron Nordan to exit the vehicle, when he observed him to be unsteady on his feet. Cameron Nordan began walking down the off ramp, in the

Missing Sheep Statue

Any information please call 865-936-0630

My huge life sized fiberglass sheep statue was stolen out of my back yard of the Loudon Housing Authority neighborhood on Creekwood Circle the 4th or 5th of July. My house backs up to trees between me and the houses on Carding Machine Road. The sheep was right behind my house in my flower bed so it was not visible from the road..... limited amount of people knew it was back there but evidently someone around me had company who saw it and decided to steal it. I am on disability now and had made payments to have this garden statue ...I finally got it on May 20th so I did not get to enjoy it very long. I just want people to know if they see my Sheep or know who stole my Sheep..... That I would like her back and am willing to give a reward to someone if they will help.

Public Notice

The Loudon County Commission will hold a public hearing at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, August 5, 2019, in the boardroom at the Loudon County Courthouse Annex, 101 Mulberry St., Loudon, TN, to receive public comments regarding amending the Zoning Map of Loudon County, TN to rezone approximately 20.18 acres, Parcel 004.00, Tax Map 078, 10616 East Coast Tellico Parkway, in the 3rd Legislative District, from R-1, Suburban Residential District to R-1, Suburban Residential District with Planned Unit Development (PUD) overlay, 2.5 units per acre.

to hold her office. I also told you that commission would take up the matter at the July workshop. Well, we did and here's how that went.

When asked if she had moved out of her district, she essentially took the fifth. She stated, the county attorney had advised her not to speak about the matter and we would need to contact him if we had any questions. She repeated this same statement to every question, maybe a dozen times.

I contacted the county attorney later during the meeting to see if what she said was true. The county attorney denied he gave Ms. Hurley any such advice. Unfortunately, by this time Ms. Hurley had already left the meeting.

So, the only answer we got from her was that the move was temporary. The law does allow for a temporary absence for an elected official from the district, county or state of their residence or domicile but the legal definition of one's residence is very clear. No one can have more than one residence/domicile. The problem with Ms. Hurley's claim is, she never mentioned anything about moving temporarily till after she got caught.

...Furthermore, as noted above, the vacancy in the office is automatic and no judicial determination to that effect is necessary. See Bailey v. Greer, 63 Tenn. App. 13, 34, 468 S.W.2d 327, 336 (1971). Thus, if a county commissioner does not reside in the district from which he or she was elected, a vacancy in that office will exist. Tennessee Attorney General Opinion No. 12-79

Ms. Hurley has told so many different stories to so many different people, it's hard to figure out what the truth is. But the fact is, Ms. Hurley has absolutely moved out of her district which would automatically disqualify her from serving on the county commission. Four things could take place at this point. Ms. Hurley could admit she has moved and is disqualified to serve and resign. The county commission could declare her seat vacated and begin the 120 day process to appoint her replacement. The district attorney could remove her or a citizen of Loudon County could take suit to remove her. Or I guess a fifth option could be that she move back to the 2nd district.

With her monthly stipend and benefits from the county, Ms. Hurley is receiving more than twenty thousand dollars per year in tax payer money. Given that she has moved out of her district, that's almost taking money under false pretence.

On Vanshaver.com is the time line of events. You can decide what her plans were. See if you hear anything about being a temporary move till after she was confronted about her move.

in the world. Her first week there, tired and busy, she visited with me for over three hours, and helped me begin to discern where God might be leading me.

Surely Mary was aware of all the tasks at hand, but she sat at the Lord's feet and listened to him teach. She honored him with her attention, and he honored her by letting her be a disciple -- a role then reserved for men.

Our world values productivity over relationships. Technology lets us multitask and work even as we sit and listen. Christ invites us daily to spend time with him and one another. There is love in setting aside the to-do list to be fully present with someone.

Since Christ dwells among us. He nourishes us at the table, reaches out to heal each other, we are present with Christ. Prayer: Loving God, your Son left heaven behind and came to dwell with us. Amen.

 lane of travel. Cameron Nordan agreed to Standardized Field Sobriety Tests and performed poorly. Cameron Nordan stated he had taken oxycodone.
 Deputy Huskins began to inventory the vehicle and observed a small cloth bag with small plastic baggies protruding. He also observed a marijuana grinder. The JDTF was called and this cloth bag protruding from NORDAN's backpack contained 294 hits of a substance that tested positive for LSD, contained within 15 bags, 5.56 grams of MDMA, and 1 gram of a unknown yellow substance. A further search of the backpack revealed 16 Xanax bars, 2 containers of DAB(THC Oil), and a bag of small jewelry baggies commonly used for drug distribution. The female passenger, Jordan Waldrop was found to possess, in her belongings, 1 container of DAB, 5 Xanax bars, and a glass pipe with THC oil residue. Field testing and Tru Narc spectrum analyzation, by Tru Narc, was conducted on substances found by JDTF to identify the suspected narcotics. This incident occurred in Loudon County.
