Harry Keilholtz sentenced to 240 months on methamphetamine conspiracy and firearm charges

Harry Keilholtz, 54, of Stone Mountain, Georgia, was sentenced by the Honorable R. Leon Jordan, U.S. District Court Judge, to serve 240 months in federal prison following convictions for his role in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine and for possessing firearms in furtherance of his drug trafficking.

According to his plea agreement on file with the U.S. District Court, Keilholtz was the out of state source of supply for this particular methamphetamine conspiracy. See Charged P.4

Marty Newman, 46, Watt Cemetery Road Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault x2, Resisting Arrest, and Poss. of Drug Para. Deputy C. Gray LCSO along with Sgt. Bowen were dispatched to Watt Cemetery Road in reference to a physical domestic. Upon arrival Deputies were at the door and could hear screaming coming from inside the home. Sgt. Bowen open the door to see a male walk out of the house and point inside to where you still heard yelling. Marty Newman then rushed the door of the home at Deputies making a fist stating Fking shoot me. Sgt. Bowen gave commands for Newman to stop which he refused. Newman then swung at Deputy, then Deputy deployed his taser with only one probe striking Newman in the arm. Newman then fell to the ground where Newman continued to resist. Newman still continued to resist and was tased again where he still was resist-

Missing Sheep Statue

Any information please call 865-936-0630

My huge life sized fiberglass sheep statue was stolen out of my back yard of the Loudon Housing Authority neighborhood on Creekwood Circle the 4th or 5th of July. My house backs up to trees between me and the houses on Carding Machine Road. The sheep was right behind my house in my flower bed so it was not visible from the road..... limited amount of people knew it was back there but evidently someone around me had company who saw it and decided to steal it. I am on disability now and had made payments to have this garden statue ...I finally got it on May 20th so I did not get to enjoy it very long. I just want people to know if they see my Sheep or know who stole my Sheep..... That I would like her back and am willing to give a reward to someone if they will help.

spiracy operating in the Eastern District of Tennessee. A federal search warrant was executed at Keilholtz's residence in Stone Mountain, Georgia, on February 12, 2016. Numerous customers/co-conspirators were present at the time the warrant was executed. Keilholtz attempted to flee but was apprehended in the back yard. A search of the residence revealed over one kilogram of methamphetamine, a loaded AK-47 rifle, ammunition, and scales. A loaded 9mm pistol was found on Keilholtz's person.

A few weeks after the execution of the search warrant, Keilholtz became a fugitive. Approximately 30 months later, in November 2018, Keilholtz was finally located and arrested in Panama City, Florida. During the sentencing hearing, an obstruction of justice enhancement was applied to Keilholtz's sentence due to his fugitive status for about two and half years. In upholding the obstruction of justice enhancement, U.S. District Court Judge R. Leon Jordan noted that Keilholtz had been living under an alias name, had lived in multiple cities during the time of his flight, had identification in someone else's name, was driving a vehicle registered to someone else, and was living in a recreational vehicle registered to someone else.

Law enforcement agencies participating in the investigation included the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Hamblen County Sheriff's Office, Morristown, Tennessee Police Department, and the Third and Fourth District Judicial Drug Task Forces. Assistant U.S. Attorney Wayne

Taylor represented the United States.

This case was a result of the Department of Justice's Organized Crime and Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) program, the centerpiece of the Department of Justice's drug supply reduction strategy. OCDETF was established in 1982 to conduct comprehensive, multi-level attacks on major drug trafficking and money laundering organizations. Today, OCDETF combines the resources and expertise of its member federal agencies in cooperation with state and local law enforcement. The principal mission of the OCDETF program is to identify, disrupt, and dismantle the most serious drug trafficking and money laundering organizations and those primarily responsible for the nation's drug supply.

that hadn't materialized for the woman in our story, she remained convinced that Jesus could and would help her. When she kneels down and says, "Lord Jesus, help me," his silence must have seemed like the ultimate put-down. Instead, she's asked to identify with the scenario where food is thrown to the dogs instead of given to children.

Yet she holds on and manages to be pretty quick on the uptake, "Yes, Lord, even little beggar dogs get in on the crumbs from their master's table."

Jesus seems amazed: "Great is your faith!" We're not told that he ever said the same of Peter or John or anyone else who had left everything to follow him. A great faith, indeed. Greater still, her Lord's ultimate faithfulness to her. Prayer: God, Grant us wisdom, courage and faith to face each hour. Amen.
