Criminals Posing as Legitimate Health Insurers and Fraud Investigators to Commit Health Care Fraud

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) warns the public about criminals impersonating legitimate health insurers and their investigative team members. These criminals are sending emails and text messages to patients and health care providers, disguising them as legitimate communications from trusted health care authorities. The messages are designed to pressure victims into disclosing protected health information, medical records, personal financial details, or providing reimbursements for alleged service overpayments or non-covered services.

Wreck

John Mize, 49, Sevierville Pike Knoxville, was charged with, DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, and Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. II.

Deputy Billy Lewis LCSO, responded to a wreck with no injury Highway 72 at Mayo Road. While working on the accident, the deputy contacted Mr. John Mize, who was driving a Ford Taurus with Tennessee registration BSL2025. John said that he had fallen asleep, causing him to strike the vehicle in front of him. Deputy Reagan LCSO, conducted SFSTs, at which time John Mize failed. Upon checking his Tennessee ID through dispatch, the deputy was advised he was suspended. John was read the Tennessee Implied Consent and refused. Deputy Reagan located a cigarette pack inside a plastic bag, which contained .06 grams of Methamphetamine, confirmed by TruNarc (2931 scan number). The deputy took Mr. John Mize into custody for DUI, Man/sale/del of schedule two, Violation of Implied Consent, and driving on a suspended driver's license. John Mize was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Police beat

Ramon Constantino, 31, Finley Drive Lenoir City, was charged with; Domestic Assault. Officer Cole LCPD, was dispatched to a domestic within the western patrol district at Finley Drive. Upon arrival, the officer observed a male and female to be in a heated verbal argument in the car port of the residence. The male subject, Ramon Constantino, appeared visible upset and exhibited signs of intoxication including slurred speech and a strong odor of alcohol emitting from his persons. Mr. Constantino had a small laceration above his right eye and was bleeding at the time of being interviewed. He initially claimed the female had struck him. However, officer investigation and witnesses determined the injury was sustained when Mr. Constantino stumbled and fell into the table prior to the physical altercation. The female/victim, had blood on her hands and appeared visibly shaken from the incident; upon investigation it was confirmed the blood was from Mr. Constantino's laceration. It should be duly noted the victim had no signs on her persons to indicate aggressive physical contact; the victim was observed to have long, delicate nails that were still intact leading officers to believe she did not closed-fist strike Mr. Constantino. However, the victim did advise officers she pushed him away in self-defense after Mr. Constantino approached her in an aggressive manner subsequent to injuring himself. Based on the evidence on scene including: the victim account of the events, the physical findings, Mr. Constantino's inconsistent account and his level of intoxication resulted in officer's identify Mr. Constantino as the primary aggressor. Mr. Constantino was placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. All of the above did occur within Lenoir City, TN

Randy Brewster, 30, Gason Road Lenoir City, was charged with, Leaving the Scene of a Accident with Death or Injury, Due Care, Duty to Render Aid and Give Information, and Traffic Control Signals.

Trooper White THP, was investigating a two vehicle motor vehicle collision with injuries, where the driver of the at fault vehicle fled the scene prior to the arrival of law enforcement. Based off of the description given from the witnesses on scene, and speaking with neighbors of the registered owner, the trooper was able to determine the suspect who left the scene was Mr. Randy P. Brewster II. The witnesses made a positive identification of Mr. Brewster. The trooper then discovered Mr. Brewster has an outstanding Federal Probation Violation. Mr. Brewster failed to stop for oncoming traffic at the intersection of Sunnyside Road and Lee Highway which caused the collision. Mr. Brewster failed to render aid to the two injured individuals in the other vehicle. Mr. Brewster was not located. The trooper issued warrants for Mr. Brewster for Leaving the Scene of an accident involving injuries violation of Tennessee Code Annotated 55-10-101. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Criminal Court

Charles Higgins, 20, Dry Valley Road Loudon was charged with Criminal Court Capias(burglary & theft).

Deputy Whitfield LCSO, came in contact with Mr. Charles Higgins at Campbell county detention center after confirming D.O.B. and SSN. The deputy confirmed Mr. Higgins had two hard copies out of criminal court for burglary of motor vehicles x7, Theft of property x4 Docket number (2023-CR-283), Burglary of motor vehicle x2, theft of property x2 docket number (2024-CR-45). The deputy then took Mr. Higgins into custody and transport him back to Loudon County Detention Center without any further incident.

Charged

erty (after being told several times in the past not to come back to her residence) asking where his dog Bella was, and knocked on her door. He then attempted to forcefully enter her home and her mother/victim 2 had to force the door shut, pushing Mr. Galyon back outside.

Mr. Galyon admitted to drinking alcohol throughout the day and was yelling at the neighbor when the officer got out of the patrol car. Mr. Galyon also admitted to withdrawing from Suboxone, and his landlord had advised since he stopped taking the Suboxone his behavior has been very erratic and aggressive.

Mr. Galyon was taken into custody for Aggravated Criminal Trespass and Public Intoxication.

He was then transported to the Loudon County jail without incident, and this did occur in the City of Loudon.

DUI

Gunner Callis, 18, East Highway 52 TN, was charged with DUI.

Officer M.Flynn LPD, was patrolling on Mulberry St when Officer Flynn Observed a Red Nissan Altima with a TN tag BRP8060 running next to the dumpster of GT Oil, a business which is closed at this time of night. Officer Flynn made contact with the offender Gunner Callis who was sitting in the driver seat. Callis displayed Red, Bloodshot, watery eyes. Officer Flynn asked Callis what he was doing sitting next to the dumpster at a closed business. Callis explained to Officer Flynn that he drove 3 hours from Bethpage TN to see his Girlfriend who he met online from an app called Wizz (an app rated for ages 12+). Callis continued to explain that he was waiting for his girlfriends parents to fall asleep so she could help sneak him inside and they could see each other. Officer W. Jenkins joined Officer Flynn on scene and asked Callis if had smoked any Marijuana recently. Callis told officers that he smoked earlier but not while he was driving. Callis was asked that on a scale of 1 to 10 with 10 being the highest he has ever been where would he rate himself. Callis explained to officers that he would rate himself at a 6 and also told officers that he believed he would be to impaired to drive. Officer Jenkins who is ARIDE certified conducted Standardized Field Sobriety Testing on Callis. It was based off his performance on testing and statements that Callis told officers that Callis was impaired by Cannabis and should not have been driving. Officer Flynn locate keys to the Vehicle in Callis' front left pocket. Officers took Callis into custody without incident. Callis consented to a Blood Draw for chemical testing. Officer Flynn transported Callis to Fort Loudon Medical and then to the Loudon County Jail without incident. The vehicle was impounded by James Towing. All this did occur in the city of Loudon, Loudon TN

Taniya Davis, 24, Pinehurst Drive Knoxville, was charged with, Simple Possession, and Driving on Revoked/Suspended License.

Officer Tatham LCPD, was patrolling South on Highway 321 N in Lenoir City, Tennessee. The officer observed a black Toyota Camry displaying Tennessee Registration 780BMMQ in front of him make a left and U turn on a red light at the intersection of Highway 321 N/Fort Loudon Medical Center Driver, as The officer approached the intersection the light for the turn lane turned green and the officer began to follow the vehicle. The vehicle made a left hand turn toward onto Town Creek Rd W where the officer initiated a traffic stop. The vehicle came to a stop in the driveway of Summit Medical Group (1018 Highway 321 N, Lenoir City, Tennessee). Upon contact with the driver identified as Taniya Davis the officer advised her of the reason for stop and obtained her Tennessee Driver's License. I ran her license through Loudon

County Dispatch who advised him her license status was suspended for failure to appear. While discussing the suspension of Ms. Davis's license with her the officer noticed the odor of marijuana coming from what he believed to be the subject's vehicle. The officer had request additional units to the traffic stop, once Officers J. Garren and D. Brown arrived on scene the officer further discussed the license issue and the odor of marijuana to which she denied having any illegal substances inside the car the officer spoke with Officer Brown while Officer Garren stood by the subject. Officer Garren also noticed the odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle and Officer Garren and Tatham performed a probable cause search of the vehicle. During the search Officer Garren located a baggie containing marijuana between the passenger seat and the center console. Ms. Davis was taken into custody and transported to Loudon County Jail without incident. The afore mentioned values to others means nothing unless you apply them to yourself.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Don't wait for someone else to take the lead today, Leo. Take charge. Do what you know is right even though someone else might disagree with you. You know what's best for you and the situation at hand. Be just as strong and bold as anyone else. You have every right to state your opinion. Act on the things you believe in.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Put on a noble demeanor before you leave the house this morning, Virgo. The key is to smile from ear to ear and just keep smiling. There's a great deal of power available to you, so put it to good use. Open your heart and freely express your love, because it will brighten up other people's lives, too.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You might find that your emotions are going through a powerful transformation, Libra. Use it to add a bit of spice and passion to your day. Set the tone by showing people that you have something to say and you aren't afraid to say it. Put a humorous spin on everything you do.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Give special attention to others today, Scorpio. Remind people how much they mean to you. Adopt a childlike attitude of excitement and adventure. This is the name of the game on a day like this. Let the sunshine touch your spirit regardless of the weather.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Proceed with passion, Sagittarius. Get out of gloomy mode. Don't sit home and mope. Get out in the sunshine, literally as well as figuratively. Don't stay cooped up inside when there is a big world out there to explore. This is a day to keep things light and energetic.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

This is your day to shine, so turn it up a notch, Capricorn. Brush your hair before you go out, and make sure you're wearing flattering attire. You have the chance to propel your emotions into an upward spiral. If there's a part of your life that feels stagnant, give it a jolt of creative energy or simply remove it from your life.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

If an emotional issue is bringing you down, Aquarius, find healthy ways to relieve the situation. Overeating won't solve the problem. This will only mask your difficulties and make them harder to deal with later.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Whatever you visualize today will likely materialize in the near future, Pisces. People are clamoring to make themselves heard, so jump in with your opinion. Keeping things balanced in your world means getting your needs met as well. Don't sacrifice your well-being just to maintain the peace.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Inflated egos might block your progress today, Aries, so be on the lookout for people trying to get a bigger slice of the pie than they deserve. Be realistic in terms of how you allocate resources to people around you.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

This day will be agreeable, Taurus. There is a dynamic energy in the air that's fueling your fire. Have a good time regardless of what you do. An adventurous, high-spirited approach will get you where you need to go in every situation. You have the power to make important transformations that will help you in the future.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Don't be quick to criticize today, Gemini. Keep things positive and think about how you can compliment someone. Your heart might need a bit more attention than usual, so surround yourself with people who bring your spirits up rather than drag them down. If you're always looking to the future, you may not realize all the wonderful things happening in the present.

Obituaries

Lowell David Blakeney (Bro. Dave), age 76, passed into the loving arms of His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on July 3, 2025. Born in Hattiesburg, Mississippi to James Rowe and Ruth (Grantham) Blakeney, Bro. Dave dedicated his life to serving God. Most notably, he served in several churches across Alabama in the roles of minister of youth and minister of music, including Hillwood Baptist Church of Huntsville, Alabama, where he served for 13 years. Bro. Dave also started Farley Community Church in Huntsville and served as pastor there for 17 years. Bro. Dave was widely known for his love for people. He could be found reading books to children in public schools, counseling families, making multiple hospital visits, connecting people with needed resources, or walking alongside others in their grief. He loved music and passed on that love to his children and a multitude of others. His favorite week of the year was Vacation Bible School, a week-long Bible camp. Bro. Dave poured his life into children, sharing with them his own deep love for Jesus. Many teenagers were impacted by his ministry, and several of them have gone on to serve as ministers in churches or as missionaries in the United States and abroad. Others are passing on his legacy of meeting others where they are in their day-to-day lives, living as Jesus lived. Bro. Dave, along with his wife of 55 years, Sandra (Griffin) Blakeney, raised three children. Kym (Blakeney) Harding and her husband, Chris, are on staff at First Baptist Church of Lenoir City, Tennessee. Robyn (Blakeney) Cates and her husband, Trey, are on staff at Faith Community Church in Barre, Vermont. Donald Blakeney and his wife, Sarah, serve at Albertville First Baptist Church (Alabama), where Don is a music minister. Along with his wife and children, Bro. Dave is survived by his six grandchildren, Jonathan Harding (spouse, Emmy), Sarah Harding, Rachel (Cates) Grace (spouse, David), Joshua Cates, Caleb Blakeney, and Leah Blakeney. A great-grandchild is due in November. He is also survived by his siblings, James Blakeney, Helen Moseley, and Walter Blakeney, along with multiple nieces and nephews. The family wishes to thank Concord Place Memory Care of Knoxville, Tennessee, for providing excellent care for Bro. Dave during the year and a half he resided there. The staff there loved him and tended to him as if he was a part of their families. They grieved along with the family at his passing. Bro. Dave's heart's desire was that all would come to know Jesus as their personal Savior and Lord. If you would like to experience the peace he had in this life and what was the driving force of his life, please reach out to a local pastor. A funeral will be held at First Baptist Church of Lenoir City, Tennessee, on Saturday, July 26, at 2:00 pm with a time of visitation beginning at 12:00 pm. A Celebration of Life service will be held at Farley Community Church in Huntsville, Alabama, on Saturday, August 2, at 3:00 pm with a time of visitation beginning at 1:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made either to Our Place, a memory care facility in Farragut, Tennessee (103 Cheezy Way, Loudon, TN 37774 or ourplacetcn.org—in memory of David Blakeney) or Kids Hope, a tutoring ministry of First Baptist Church, Lenoir City, Tennessee (2085 Simpson Road East, Lenoir City, TN 37772).
