Rocheport Woman Indicted for $1.5 Million Fraud Scheme

Columbia Payroll Services Company Defrauded Clients, Small Business Administration

A Rocheport, Mo., woman has been indicted by a federal grand jury for using her payroll services business in a $1.5 million fraud and embezzlement scheme.

Kathryn L. Cunningham, also known as "Kat," 62, was charged in a 38-count indictment returned under seal by a federal grand jury in Jefferson City, Mo., on Dec. 13, 2022. That indictment was unsealed and made public today following Cunningham's arrest. Her initial court appearance and arraignment will be held this afternoon.

Cunningham is the former owner and CEO of Moresource, Inc., in Columbia, Mo., which provided payroll services for approximately 141 clients when it closed in June 2020. Moresource contracted with each of these clients to accurately calculate the client's payroll and the state and federal payroll and income taxes for the client's employees, to obtain funds from the

Charged

Jesse Morgan, 32, Highland Ave Lenoir City, was charged with False Imprisonment, Domestic Assault and Resisting Arrest.

Deputy Watson LCSO, responded to Highland Avenue in reference to a 911 hang-up. Upon arrival, while deputies approached the residence, Deputy heard screaming and crying coming from inside the residence. Deputy observed the front door to be wide open. Deputies entered the residence and he saw a door slam and observed (Victim) in the living room crying. Deputy observed the bedroom door that was slammed to be heavily damaged and could partially see through the door. Deputy observed Jesse Morgan (Offender, Arrestee) standing against the door preventing it from being opened. Deputy announced himself as the sheriff's office and pushed the door open. Deputy produced his firearm due to not being fully able to see what was inside the bedroom. Deputy took Mr. Morgan by the wrist and pulled him out of the bedroom and attempted to place him into custody. Mr. Morgan began to resist and was placed on the ground so deputies could gain control of him. Mr. Morgan was placed into custody after a brief struggle. Deputies secured Mr. Morgan in a patrol vehicle and then returned to the residence to get statements. Deputy spoke with (Victim) and she made the following summarized statements;

On this date, Mr. Morgan and victim got into a verbal argument. The victim attempted to end the argument by going to bed but the argument continued. Mr. Morgan became physically violent and bit victim on the nose causing her to bleed after she made a derogatory statement toward Mr. Morgan. A struggle ensued and victim received several bite marks all over her arms and on her leg. Victim stated that Mr. Morgan also placed his hands on victim during the argument. Mr. Morgan slammed the bedroom door and stood in front of the door preventing anyone from being able to leave or enter the bedroom as deputies entered the residence.

The victim stated that she was afraid of Mr. Morgan and felt that her life was in danger during this incident. Victim did arm herself with a kitchen knife for her safety during the incident briefly see Charged etd. pg. 3 client to cover that payroll, to disburse payroll funds to the client's employees, to remit payroll and income tax payments to state departments of revenue and the IRS, and to generate and submit all required state and federal payroll tax forms.

Cunningham allegedly embezzled money from the payroll account held in trust for Moresource's clients. She took her clients' money for her personal benefit, the indictment says, as well as to fund her company's operations. Cunningham allegedly embezzled approximately $1,545,427 of payroll deposits from 24 Moresource clients.

As part of her fraud scheme, the indictment says, Cunningham also used money from Moresource's operating account for her personal use. Cunningham borrowed money on multiple occasions from at least two non-bank lenders to cover shortfalls in the client funds in the Moresource payroll account. She also paid the principal and interest on several of those loans from the client funds in Moresource payroll account.

According to the indictment, Cunningham fraudulently obtained a guaranteed loan and a line of credit from the Small Business Administration by concealing a financial liability. On multiple occasions, Cunningham caused SBA guaranteed funds to be disbursed into Moresource's operating account and then transferred into Moresource's payroll account to replace client funds she had embezzled rather than use the SBA funds for working capital.

According to the indictment, Cunningham embezzled federal funds from Abilities for Business, Inc. (subsequently known as Mid-Missouri Business Leadership Network, Inc.), an organization of which she was president. Cunningham deposited funds embezzled from this organization into Moresource's payroll account to replace client funds she had also embezzled. Cunningham also deposited funds embezzled from Abilities for Business into her personal bank accounts.

Cunningham attempted to conceal her embezzlement of client funds by causing Moresource to stop making timely and accurate IRS filings, the indictment says, and to stop making regular payments to the IRS for the employment taxes owed by her clients. Cunningham caused documents to be transmitted to her clients that falsely stated all payroll tax obligations had been satisfied. Cunningham falsely told her clients that the IRS sent them tax deficiency notices because the IRS was behind in processing tax payments, because the IRS misapplied the tax payments, and because of issues with Moresource's payroll software.

The federal indictment charges Cunningham with 24 counts of bank fraud, four counts of stealing from an organization that receives federal funds, and 10 counts of wire fraud.

The charges contained in this indictment are simply accusations, and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charges must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.

This case is being prosecuted by Supervisory Assistant U.S. Attorney Michael S. Oliver. It was investigated by the FBI and IRS-Criminal Investigation.

Horoscopes

ricorn, but you will be itching to take action by nightfall. Take what you've learned from your sensitive, meditative state and share it with others. Use your inner calm to bring stability to stressful situations. Make sure things don't get out of hand tonight.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

For the past several weeks you've felt like you've been dragging your heels, Aquarius. Decisions may have been hard to make and people may have seemed wishy-washy. There's a major energy shift tonight that will spark things back into action. Once again you will be on center stage. Be yourself and smile. Fun is a commodity you have in abundance. Share this incredible gift with others.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

The morning might find you sitting like a stick in the mud, Pisces. People might be getting down on you for not contributing, but tell them to be patient. You will be raring to go by nightfall. The catalyst may come from an outside source. Be on the lookout for a challenge. Someone might rattle your cage a bit too much, so be patient and don't take it personally.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Things are moving your way,

Aries. As the day progresses, you will find that the energy intensifies. Conflicts may arise near sundown, but don't worry about it too much. See it as a call to jump-start your motor. Visit an antique shop and chat with the people around you. Simple yet meaningful encounters may prove richly rewarding.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You should enjoy the intense energy of today, Taurus. The mud is finally beginning to clear away. Expose the truth in every issue and get ready for the gremlins that may be unEarthed. Connect with nature today and spend some time with animals if you can. Take deep breaths in fresh outdoor air and enjoy a long walk somewhere special with a close friend.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Today marks the beginning of a new cycle for you, Gemini. Collect and consolidate your recent ideas and focus them outwardly. The time is right for you to act. Improve your surroundings and adjust your bed so that it faces east/west. (A north/south placement aligns you with Earth's magnetic field and causes you to lose energy at night.) Drink plenty of water to keep your mind clear.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Take a cold shower to jump-start yourself today, Cancer. It's fine if you laze around a bit in the morning, but by evening, you should be working at full capacity. You will be called into action whether you want to be or not. Notice how active your dreams are tonight and over the next couple of nights. Messages are trying to get through, so listen.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Today may start out sluggish for you, Leo, but by the end of the day the energy will move fast and furious. Your thoughts will be buzzing around your head like bees around a hive. An introspective and contemplative morning has filled your brain with a new wave of thoughts, which you will be eager to share with anything that has ears tonight.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Enjoy the calm morning, Virgo, because things are going to get crazier and more energetic as the day goes on. Emotions will run high, and people will be more opinionated than usual. A conflict may arise from which you just want to extricate yourself. Realize that a more peaceful agreement will ensue if you jump in and add your two cents' worth.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You will experience an intense amount of energy today,

Libra. Your dream state will be more active than usual, and you will find that people are drawn to you like moths to light. Make sure you keep your fiery emotions in balance and don't cross any boundaries with others. People have limits, and it's important that you honor theirs as well as your own.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

It's time to get up and get moving, Scorpio. You have tremendous ideas and vision for the future. You have all the information you need. Now all you have to do is act. Step up to the plate and hit one over the fence. Getting out of your box and further into the world at large will do you a great deal of good. Get a greater perspective on things and enjoy time in a new environment.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

The early part of the day might find you sluggish and indecisive, Sagittarius, but later you should be psyched up and ready to go. Today marks the beginning of a new period in which you should set your ideas in motion. Action is the key. Think before you speak and use caution when talking about other people. Make sure your discussions about others don't turn into gossip.
