Lake County Jail Administrator Indicted for Theft

Neina Ceaser Misappropriated more than $35,000

Brian Brewster

(see Charged pg. 3)

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictment of Neina Ceaser, the jail administrator in Lake County.

Investigators determined that Ceaser stole at least $35,158.88 of inmate commissary funds and booking deposits from January 2018 through July 2023. The investigation began after Lake County officials discovered the Sheriff's Department commissary account was out of balance and they could not pay for inmate commissary products.

Lake County jail inmates use their commissary funds to purchase items such as snacks and toiletries. Ceaser was responsible for overseeing the inmate commissary accounts, which includes making cash deposits.

The investigation revealed that Ceaser failed to deposit cash that was collected from two kiosk machines located at the Sheriff's Department.

The kiosks are used to collect money from individuals intended for placement in an inmate's commissary account. If an inmate has any cash or coins

Erin Emerson, 52. Roland Link Boulevard Oak Ridge, was charged with DUI, Simple Possession, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officers with the Lenoir City Police Department received a call of a reckless driver in the area of Highway 70 and Avalon. The complaint stated a dark colored Mercedes was all over the road and did not have a tag on the vehicle. Officer Skyler McGinnis observed the vehicle in the area of Highway 70 and Highway 321, upon observing the vehicle swaying back and forth within their traffic lane. Officer McGinnis then observed the vehicle to not be displaying a registration and conducted a traffic stop at 285 Highway 70 West. Officer Law, was on scene and identified the female to be Erin Emerson, upon speaking to Ms. Emerson she was having difficulty pay attention. While furthering his investigation, Ms. Emerson stated he had a medical disorder that prevented her from sitting still.

While conducting my investigation Ms. Emerson stated she had taken Ritalin and Zofran prior to our encounter through her nasal cavity. Officer located a small circler container with a crushed up grey pill, and a half-cut straw with the same matching residue inside.

Ms. Emerson stated that was her Zofran, and that the straw was the method she used to put the substance in her nasal cavity. Ms. Emerson stated she was unable to perform SFST due to her medical condition but was willing to perform the Modified Romberg Balance test. The goal is to be plus or minus 5 seconds in a 30 second duration, Ms. Emerson was around 14.61 seconds. Due to the totality of circumstances Ms. Emerson was placed under arrest and transported to the Fort Loudoun Medical Center for a consented blood draw. Ms. Emerson was then transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This incident did take place within Loudon County, Tennessee, and all the above occurred in Lenoir City, TN.

on their person when they are booked, the funds are also placed in their commissary account, utilizing the kiosk.

Investigators compared the cash collections in the kiosks to the department's cash deposits and discovered that Ceaser failed to deposit $35,158.88 of inmate funds into the inmates' commissary bank account.

Ceaser concealed her misappropriation by falsifying general ledger journal entries and deposit slips.

Based upon this investigation, in November 2023, Neina Ceaser was indicted by the Lake County Grand Jury for one count of theft of property over $10,000, one count of destruction of and tampering with governmental records, and one count of official misconduct.

"Sheriff's department officials must provide adequate oversight and implement effective internal controls over cash collected in the kiosks," said Comptroller Mumpower. "One person should not be responsible for collecting the cash, counting it, depositing it, and posting the journal entries. I'm pleased to note the department is already taking steps to address this issue."

Police beat

Joseph Goins, 42, Watkins Road Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault, and General Session Capias.

Deputy Stanley LCSO, responded to Watkins Road in regards to a Domestic. While enroute, the deputy was informed that one of the parties involved (Joseph Goins) had an active warrant out of Loudon County. Upon arrival, Deputy Stanley made contact with the victim at the door. She advised her boyfriend Joseph Goins was inside the house, and she gave permission for deputies to enter the residence. The victim also stated that there was a physical altercation that occurred earlier between the two.

Deputy Stanley, along with assisting deputies made contact with Joseph inside the residence and placed him into custody for the Failure to Appear warrant (53GS1-2023-CR-1102). While speaking with the victim further, she advised the altercation happened earlier in the day, and escalated to the point of Goins hitting her in the head after dragging her inside by her hair. Deputy did observe bruising along the left side of Russell's face, where she stated was sustained during the altercation.

Goins denied the altercation turning physical. Deputy also spoke with the victims mother, who was the caller, and she advised she had heard the altercation when the victim called her.

Due to observations on scene Deputy informed Joseph Goins he was also charged with Domestic Assault, and transported him to the Loudon County Jail without incident. All occurred in Loudon County.
