Comptroller's Office Studies High School Graduation and Dropout Rates

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office of Research and Education Accountability (OREA) has released a report on the federal and state criteria for calculating high school graduation rates and dropout rates in Tennessee.

The federal Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015 requires states to use the adjusted cohort graduation rate (ACGR) formula for calculating graduation rates. The ACGR compares the number of 12th grade students who graduate with a regular diploma with the number of students enrolled in 9th grade four years earlier, referred to as a cohort. Students who exit a district for reasons such as transferring to another school district, withdrawing to home school, or moving to another country are removed from the cohort and do not negatively impact the district's ACGR. Federal graduation rate requirements do not allow states to make exceptions in any circumstances, including those over which districts or schools have no control (e.g., incarcerated students and students with permanent medical withdrawals). the 2021-22 school year, the Tennessee ACGR was 89.8 percent.

Federal law does not require states and districts to track and report dropout rates, but nearly half of all states, including Tennessee, voluntarily report dropout rates on the education report cards required by ESSA. Tennessee uses a cohort dropout rate formula based on the same 9th grade cohort used for calculating the ACGR. The formula divides the total number of dropouts by the total number of students in the cohort to determine the dropout rate. In the 2021-22 school year, the Tennessee cohort dropout rate was 8.6 percent.

OREA found that certain student subgroups are more likely to drop out and not graduate from high school because of multiple factors. In 2021-22, English learners in Tennessee had an ACGR of 67.8 percent and a dropout rate of 30 percent. The rates of economically disadvantaged students and students with disabilities also fell below the state rate.

The Comptroller's Office included one policy consideration for TDOE in its report. TDOE could publish an extended-year graduation rate in addition to its four-year graduation rate. Over half of all states report a five-, six-, or seven-year graduation rate to highlight the students who needed extra time to meet graduation requirements. While not required for federal accountability purposes, extended-year graduation rates could provide useful insight to educators, parents, and policymakers.

needs in silence and isolation.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You're cleaning, sweeping, and tidying up your relationships as never before. More remains to be done, but in the end, your relationships will take on completely different forms.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Great rivers are born from drops of water. Opportunity isn't lacking in your life at the moment. This is a great time to buckle down in your personal and professional lives. You've never shied away from hard work.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Are you deeply satisfied with your love life? Several of the aspects will push you to take stock and develop some solutions if needed. A big issue could be your possessiveness.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Loving someone is no guarantee that one day that person won't leave. You must give your love freely and without strings. If you approach people always asking for guarantees or protection, you'll make them feel that you don't trust them.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

You need a guide. This is a time to learn from the master of a domain, even if it means putting yourself in the role of disciple. This is a wonderful change for you, especially because you're often the one teaching others.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

This is a meditative day. It will help you take stock of how you feel inside, which you haven't had time to do for a while. You're in the process of abandoning the burden of always doing your "duty."

Leo 7/23-8/22

Old demons and dreams are on the agenda today. Do you want to be an artist? Are you sure? If you're an artist, would you like to be more prominent or rich? Be wary of such daydreams because they take you away from enjoying your life. Live in the here and now.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

If your daily life seems disorderly, change it. Don't delay. You say that the hustle and bustle of life has you running in a thousand different directions. You'd really prefer to live in peace and quiet in the country.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You don't like to be held back. You can't wait quietly until you reach your objectives. Know that occasionally the unpleasant tasks have to be done before you can enjoy yourself. This is the case today.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Is this the day you'll meet someone new? It's possible! The astral aspects are going to make it a lot easier for you.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You can expect to have a calm, efficient day. Whatever projects you've initiated in your public or private life should start taking on an interesting shape. Little by little, uncertainties will vanish. Have confidence in time, because it's currently working in your favor.
