Comptroller's Office Launches New Webpage for Map Resources

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has created a new home for a variety of mapping resources that are helping Tennesseans learn more about their communities.

The new Maps webpage is a one-stop shop to find maps depicting local, state, and congressional legislative districts; community demographic profiles;

maps depicting land use in Tennessee towns and cities; and much more.

Other mapping resources include the Comptroller's Office dashboards highlighting education data in schools and school districts; an interactive map showing where Comptroller fraud investigations have occurred; our Tennessee Voter District lookup site; and a unique story map about the Tennessee Property Tax Relief program.

"The maps we produce are some of our Office's most popular and requested items," said Comptroller Mumpower. "In addition to making more maps available to Tennesseans online, this new webpage also makes it easier for

Wreck

Billy Collins, 48, Cedar Grove Street Loudon, was charged with DUI, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Poss. Of Drug Para., Poss. Of Meth, and Simple Possession x2.

Deputy R. Fleming LCSO, responded to a wreck with injury at Pine Grove Providence Rd between two vehicles involved in a head-on collision. Upon arrival, Deputy made contact with Billy Collins/Offender who was injured inside his vehicle, which was down the embankment in a creek bed. Mr. Collins said to EMS and Deputy that he passed out and ran into oncoming traffic causing a head-on collision. Mr. Collins was assisted out of the vehicle by EMS and Law Enforcement personnel. Based on Deputy training and experience, he suspected Mr. Collins was under the influence of a drug or intoxicant. It was also discovered that Mr. Collins had a revoked driver's license from a prior DUI. After further investigation, Deputy discovered multiple needles (one still with a substance inside of it), pipes, and other drug paraphernalia. Mr. Collins was taken by ambulance to FT. Loudoun Medical Center for medical treatment for injuries sustained in the crash.

While in the ambulance, Mr. Collins admitted to using heroin earlier in the day. Deputy concluded, based on his investigation, that Mr. Collins was under the influence of a drug or intoxicant that impaired his ability to safely operate a motor vehicle on a public roadway. Once at the hospital, Mr. Collins was read his Miranda rights and was also read the TN Implied Consent form 55-10-407. Mr. Collins then consented to give a blood sample. The offender also admitted that the substance in the syringe was Methamphetamine. Mr. Collins was treated for a broken heel and then discharged from the ER. Deputy then placed the Offender into custody for Driving Under The Influence TCA 55-10-401, Driving on a revoked license 55-50-504, and Drug Paraphernalia TCA 39-17-425. Mr. Collins was transported to Loudon County Jail with no further incident. The needles/syringes were properly disposed of in an appropriate sharps container. The other paraphernalia that was seized was submitted into evidence to be destroyed. All the above occurred in Loudon County, TN.

Couple Sentenced For Conspiracy, Wire Fraud, And Major Fraud Against The United States

Ricky and Kairina Lanier, 55 and 49, both of LaGrange, N.C., were sentenced by the Honorable Travis McDonough, Chief United States District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Chattanooga, to serve federal prison terms of 48 months and 24 months, respectively, for conspiracy to commit wire fraud, wire fraud, and major fraud against the United States. Following their incarceration, the Laniers will each be on supervised release for a period of one year. Chief Judge McDonough ordered forfeiture of the couple’s bank accounts and deferred a ruling on a money judgement until a later date.

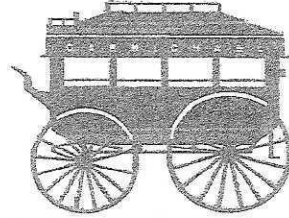

The couple were found guilty of these offenses, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1349, 1343, and 1031 on July 29, 2022, following a two-week jury trial in U.S. District Court. According to evidence presented at trial, the Laniers conspired from 2005 to 2013 to defraud the United States government through a scheme to fraudulently obtain federal contracts intended to be awarded to businesses lawfully participating in the Department of Veterans Affairs’ (VA) Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) program and the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) 8(a) Business Development program. They falsely represented that JMR Investments and Kylee Construction were eligible for these programs. Their actions also deprived legitimate service-disabled veteran and minority-owned businesses from obtaining government contracts on which they were eligible to bid.

Ricky Lanier, who had previously owned and operated an 8(a) business receiving government contracts, became ineligible to participate in the 8(a) program after that business graduated from that program in 2008. Lanier used a long-time friend and service-disabled veteran as the purported owner of Kylee Construction, falsely representing that the friend was involved in the daily management of the business, even while the friend was working for a government contractor in Afghanistan. The Laniers used a minority-owned business run by Ricky Lanier’s college roommate, JMR Investments, as a front to obtain construction contracts from the National Park Service and other federal agencies under the 8(a) program, misrepresenting the friend’s involvement in the management and operation of the business. The scheme also involved sub-contracting most of the work on the contracts in violation of program requirements. As part of the scheme, the Laniers opened and controlled bank accounts into which government money was deposited, and they used those accounts to pay for extravagant vacations; monthly payments on a personal private airplane; a Mercedes Benz; mortgage payments for their personal residence; purchases of additional real estate; and purchases of personal property such as shoes, clothing, food, and souvenirs while on vacation.

The Laniers also defrauded the National Park Service in connection with a contract to replace a wastewater treatment facility at the Tremont Institute in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, falsely representing subcontractor costs by over $400,000, resulting in the award of a $1.1 million contract for work on the project that was actually performed by a subcontractor for only $550,000. The Laniers further fraudulently obtained a $1.3 million construction contract at the James H. Quillen VA Medical Center, which had been set aside for service-disabled veteran owned businesses.

Horoscopes

anything done. The truth of the matter is that the work you need to do is actually found up in those clouds. Trust that you've taken care of the foundation. The thing you need to do now is relax and let your fantasies lead the way.

Aries 3/21-4/19

If you need to do errands, Aries, don't drag others along with you. Complete your mission solo. You will find that you're more efficient if you don't have to carry the extra burden around. Not only will you get your chores done more quickly but you will also have time to think and process certain things without someone else's energy influencing your thinking.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Don't take no for an answer today, Taurus. Chances are you won't have to. People will be more understanding of your situation and have compassion for your cause. Your inner strength will show through loud and clear, and you have the desire to make anything happen you want. There's a lucky star smiling on you that's helping you tackle any project.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

It may be difficult to deal with people who seem spaced out and confused today, Gemini. This confusion can be contagious. You will find that no matter how much logic you apply to the situation, if it doesn't feel right, it won't happen. Things will flow naturally or they won't flow at all. Ease into the relaxed atmosphere of the day and don't worry if things don't happen as quickly as you'd like.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Take your mind off your stressful duties and responsibilities today, Cancer. This is a time for emotions and ego to connect in harmony. Don't let other people's problems ruin your good mood. There's a need for you to consciously let your mind and body be at ease. Art and music will bring you a great deal of pleasure. Indulge in the things that make you truly happy.

Leo 7/23-8/22

All the knowledge in the world will be no match for the emotional energy in the air on a day like today, Leo. You may be carried away into a mystical realm where feelings take precedence over facts. Let go of reality for a while and free yourself from the hectic pace of everyday life. There's a strong pull toward the fantasy realm today, so feel free to go there.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Treat yourself to something special, Virgo, whether a gourmet meal, new outfit, or latest gadget. Today is your day and you shouldn't deprive yourself of anything. There's a remarkable synchronicity of events that will lead you to exactly the right place at the right time. There's a special warmth and sensitivity in the air that will put your mind and emotions at ease.

Libra 9/23-10/22

There's an emotional, sensual feeling to the day that is sure to tickle your heart, Libra. Try not to be too abrasive when dealing with others. The more serene you can be, the more doors you will be able to walk through. Be patient and don't feel like you need to be first in line. If you aren't sure of a situation, don't jump in headfirst.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

The different parts of your personality should work harmoniously today, Scorpio. It's important that there be an equal amount of give and take in your world. If for some reason there's an imbalance in a certain area of your life, address the issue right away. It's important that you maintain equilibrium within yourself and with the people around you.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

You probably aren't going to impress people with your fast talk and quick facts today, Sagittarius. You will likely get further if you express the emotions that lie behind your words. It's more important to say what you feel than what you think. Even though this may go against your usual nature, you will find that it's the best policy on a day like this.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19
Your ego should be strengthened by your emotions, and vice versa, today. Be yourself in every capacity and situation, Capricorn. Things should flow quite smoothly for you as long as you keep the energy moving within you. Share your feelings honestly with others and you will find that your inner vitality strengthens. No one will be able to speak against words that come straight from your heart.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Like a surfer who wants to ride the endless wave, you must first prepare yourself before you jump into the ocean with your board, Aquarius. Sit on the real or imaginary beach for a while and contemplate the tide. Watch the currents and see how other surfers fare under the prevailing conditions. You will find that the more preparation you do, the more secure you will be when you hit the water.
