passed me crossing over the fog line. Deputy got behind the vehicle, bearing TN registration BCY4199, where it again crossed the fog line, then made a lane change without signaling. While travelling in the left-hand lane, it crossed into the right-hand lane nearly striking another vehicle. Deputy attempted to conduct a traffic stop, just before Lighthouse Point Drive, but the driver failed to stop, only slowing. Deputy initiated his siren, and the vehicle eventually pulled to the side of the road, continuing at a slow speed until finally stopping approximately a mile from where the deputy initially attempted to traffic stop the vehicle, just past Highway 95. Once stopped, deputy approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver, Christy Clauss. She had bloodshot eyes, she was very lethargic, and appeared confused. She attempted to get her Driver's License from her wallet, but could not remove it. Deputy asked her if she had anything to drink, and she stated one margarita about 6 hours ago. Deputy asked her to step out of the vehicle, and she had trouble maintaining her balance while walking to my vehicle. She consented to Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks, and performed poorly. CPL. Wallen conducted ARIDE on her, and she performed poorly. CPL. Wallen asked her again if she had anything to drink, and she stated one margarita about 3 hours ago. She was taken into custody, and while the deputy was placing the handcuffs she was speaking with other Deputies on scene, and as she spoke she emitted a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage. Deputy read her TN Implied consent, and she refused to provide an answer although she was given ample opportunity. While in his patrol vehicle, she continued to display signs of impairment by asking the same question multiple times, and repeating herself. She was transported to the Loudon County Detention Center, without incident. This occurred in Loudon County, TN.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, observed two motorcycles turning on Highway 70 towards Roane County from Highway 321.

One of the motorcycles being a black sports bike had no visible illuminated registration plate. As the deputy attempted to get behind it to initiate a traffic stop on Highway 70, the bike being ridden by a white male wearing a backpack, moved over onto the oncoming lane and accelerated at a high rate of speed.

penses. Some of these expenses included payment for personal travel, automobiles, medical bills for family members, boat/watercraft and marina fees, and other personal items, none of which was related to church business. Apps used his federal firearms license to funnel additional stolen money through his business account by using stolen church money to acquire a large supply of firearms. Apps also wrote checks to himself under the guise of church member donations to support supposed medical bills relating to his false claim that he had brain cancer. Apps additionally failed to pay the church's payroll taxes over a period of years, which resulted in over a $1 million tax liability to the IRS from the church.

The investigation was conducted by the FBI as part of the Smoky Mountains Financial Crimes Task Force.
